Plate 2 "Re entries"

Re entry 1.

All re entries seem to be due to the fact that the value-tablet above the head was inserted on the plate separately from the rest of the design.

In inserting the oval with the word of value above the portrait it was placed too far to the left and had to be corrected. Evidence of the mistake is to be found in the occurrence of a number of coloured horizontal lines on the left of the value-tablet.

Re-entry (?) 2.

A number of curved lines crossing the lowest loop of the scroll-work in front of the forehead.

Re entry 3.

Similar to No 1, but the value tablet originally placed too far to the right.

This re-entry is the variety usually described as "Value tablet with the lines of background extending through the Siamese characters."
